W. Harrington Reilly Passes Away

The news has just reached Blairmore of the death of W. Harrington Reilly, which took place at the Victoria hospital yesterday afternoon. Mr. Reilly had been ill but a short period. He was but 44 years of age and a business man of much ability and energy. Among other offices Mr. Reilly was vice-president and managing director of the Rocky Mountain Cement Co., which operates a plant here. He was also president of the British Canadian Oil Co., Ltd., and secretary-treasurer of the Al Azhar Temple Co. at Calgary. Mr. Reilly's life was that of a busy man, and his death at the very prime of life cuts off a career that had already been more than usually successful. Born in Dublin, Ireland, W. Harrington Reilly, son of William Alexander and Eamer Reilly, was educated at high school in that city. In 1893 he was employed by the Electric Railway at Buffalo, N. Y., as stenographer and later on as chief clerk. In 1896 he held the post of assistant superintendent of the Niagara Electric Chemical Co. of Niagara Falls, and from 1897 to 1903 he was a partner in the firm of J. N. Hancock & Co., miners and shippers of coal. In that year he came to Alberta and married Miss Harriet J. Cornes, daughter of Capt. Edward Cornes, of Whitewater, Wis.

Master in Chambers Denies Statement On Foreclosures

In connection with the announcement from Calgary that no more orders for sale or foreclosures would be taken in mortgage actions, the Journal interviewed the Master in Chambers, Mr. Clarry, on Saturday. Mr. Clarry stated that this announcement was wholly unauthorized, and that no interview of any kind was given by him to any newspaper in the province. Mr. Clarry stated that every case would be dealt with on its merits, and the present financial stringency would be taken into consideration when dealing with every foreclosure or sale application. Mr. Clarry stated that in any case where a mortgagee had abandoned the property and showed no inclination to fulfill his obligations, he would be entitled to no consideration.—Edmonton Journal.

Another New Auto Road

The Craibrook Automobile Association has been advised that two new steel bridges have been completed across the Myle river at Eastport, Idaho, and that a through line is now open by the shortest and most direct route from all east Kootenay, Alberta and western Canadian points to Idaho, and from there through to Spokane and other coast cities. The road crosses the border at Kingsgate.

"Hoch der Kaiser!"

One of the German prisoners of war now in custody here, speaking to the local immigration office yesterday informed him that in his opinion the Kaiser was a "big damn fool." Whether he was sincere, or he thought the holding of such an opinion might justify his release, is questionable. The authorities are taking no chance.—Sydney Post.

Prof. Brock is Now Dean

The Hon. Mr. Young, minister of education, for British Columbia, is in receipt of an intimation from the board of governors of the provincial university, that Prof. R. W. Brock, has been pleased to accept the post of dean of applied science in the University of British Columbia. It has been learned that Mr. R. J. McConnell, for many years a member of the geological survey staff at Ottawa, has been appointed deputy minister of mines, in succession to Prof. Brock.

Judgment in Cooney Versus McCoubrey et al.

"The evidence submitted in this action satisfies me beyond all doubt that the defendant Chambers who was admittedly the agent of the defendants McCoubrey & Peterson, did in order to induce the plaintiff to purchase lots 22, 23, 24, Block Six, Keystone Park, Athabasca Landing, make the several representations set out in the statement of claim and the amended statements of claim, and that these several representations were misrepresentations and not in accord with the facts, and that the plaintiff when agreeing to purchase the said lots relied upon the truth of these representations."

Further the evidence establishes the plaintiff demanded rescission of the agreement and a refund of his money with commendable promptness after becoming certain the facts had been misrepresented.

In view of these findings the plaintiff is in my opinion entitled to an order directing the surrender, rescission and cancellation of the agreement to purchase and to a refund of purchase money, $190.00, paid with interest at eight per cent. per annum. This rate of interest is stated in the agreement in the following word: "we guarantee these lots to be high and dry and good building lots or money returned with 8% interest." It is not in my opinion unfair to apply the same rate to a return of the money under the circumstances as declared by the judgment.

The amounts were as follows:—21st Oct., 1912, $50.00; 4th Oct., $20.00; 23rd Nov., $20.00; 12th Dec., $20.00; 25th Jan., 1913, $20.00; 20th Feb., $20.00; 22nd March, $20.00; 25th April, $20.00.

There will be judgment for the plaintiff accordingly with full costs (including examinations, if any) of action.

Macleod, Alberta, July 24th, 1914.

Edw. P. McNeill,

Judge of District Court.

In the above case J. E. Gillis, of the firm of Campbell & Gillis, Blairmore, was solicitor for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Aitkin, Gilchrist & O'Rourke, of Calgary, were solicitors for the defendant.

Petition for Prohibition

The Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League is, at the present time, engaged in canvassing for signatures on a petition which is to be presented to the Provincial government at the forthcoming session, asking for a referendum on the question of prohibition. This being of such vital interest to the people of the province of Alberta, the Temperance and Moral Reform League asks that publicity be given to the following:

1. The petition is asking the government to give to the people a referendum during the year 1915 on the question of province-wide prohibition.

2. The bill which accompanies the petition enforces the following features: (a) It asks for prohibition of sale, gift or barter of intoxicating drinks; (b) It provides for the sale of alcoholic drinks for the following purposes, namely, medicinal, sacramental, scientific and mechanical.

3. The bill is based on the principle of no license. Persons authorized to dispense liquors for the above purposes are to be called vendors, appointed by the government, who receive a salary, having no pecuniary interest in the liquor so dispensed and receiving no profits therefrom. Thus all profit or gain is eliminated from the sale.

4. The bill as drafted has in it the best features of several prohibition acts. In framing the bill the following were consulted: The Nova Scotia Temperance act; the Prince Edward Island Temperance act; the Kansas State Prohibition act; the Manitoba act; which, during the time of Hugh John Macdonald, was voted upon, but never became law, and yet was carried as a test case before the Privy Council and was declared intra vires. These are the acts out of which has come our present prohibition bill.

5. The petition now asking for signatures asks the government for a referendum during the year 1915, on which occasion a majority of the votes cast carry this province for prohibition.

6. The petition requires 25 per cent. of the number of those who voted at the last provincial election. All qualified to vote are eligible to sign whether they ever voted or not.

An Opportunity to Dispose of Stock

Calgary, Sept. 11, 1914.

Dear Sir,
In certain portions of southern and southeastern Alberta, owing to the dry season and the scarcity of feed there may be farmers and ranchers who would be glad to sell their stock or place the stock out on shares. In central and northern Alberta where the rainfall has been heavier, and there is an abundance of hay and forage crops, there are no doubt farmers who are in the market to purchase stock on shares.

If these parties will communicate their wants to the undersigned, he would be very pleased to bring the parties together in an endeavor to help the live stock industry of the province.

Yours very truly,
E. L. Richardson,
Secretary.

Seville's Tower of Girdles.

From its great antiquity alone it is plain that the Girdle of Seville has been studied from the tower of the Madison Square Garden in New York, which was always with it, and which, if the case must be reversed and we must allow that the Madison Square tower was a mere study, the Girdle of Seville must still recognize that it is no servile copy, but in its frank imitation has a grace and beauty which achieve originality. Still, the Girdle is always the Girdle, and though there had been no Girdle of Seville to tip its summit with such a flying footed serpent as poses on its tower, the figure of Faith, which crowns it, is at least a good weather vane and from its office of turning gives the mighty bell tower its name. Long centuries before the tower was a bellify it served the mosque, which the cathedral now replaces, as a minaret for the muezzin to call the faithful to prayer, but it was then only two-thirds as high—Harpur's Magazine.

Cutlery Hindus.

In Bengal there are about 70,000,000 of people, and they boast of perhaps the best cutlery in India at present time. The language of a written language is only fifty years old. Though for over a thousand years it has been in use, there is no Indian history unfortunately no trace of Bengal having been an important literary tongue. The language originates from Sanskrit, the mother tongue from which every other Indian language has borrowed its alphabet, grammar and vocabulary; but, unlike the others, Bengali never shrinks from gathering words from other languages. There are numerous Persian, French, Arabic and English words incorporated in it, and the wonder of it is that, instead of having been degraded into some vulgar form like pidgin English, Bengali has become the most literary, scientific and perhaps the most philosophic of modern Indian languages.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

Shrewd Sexton
Among the tourists who travel through France a considerable number visit the cathedral at Rheims, a magnificent example of gothic architecture. In the tower there is an enormous clock, and it is the custom of the wind to wind it every day, a very trying job, as the weights are naturally extremely heavy.

Emily Bronte's Looks.

A discussion as to the personal appearance of Emily Bronte reveals a remarkable fact that no one knows anything about it since there is no portrait of her. Charlotte Bronte, first saw George Henry Lewes she said that he was wonderfully like her sister Emily, but this is unfortunate for Emily since Lewes was very much like a baboon. Possibly the comparison was due to a sisterly candor that so seldom errs on the side of mercy. Thanks to photography, the historian of the future will not be in doubt as to the appearance of celebrities of the present generation, but he is likely to have his own opinion as to those worth knowing about—Argonaut.

Wretched From Asthma—Strength of Body and Vigor of Mind are Inevitably Impaired by the visitations of asthma.

Who can live under the cloud of recurring attacks and keep body and mind at their full efficiency? Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy dispels the cloud by removing the cause. It does relief to restore the sufferer to normal body trim and mental brightness.

A Real Genius

"What kinder a feller is Pete Doolittle?"
"Bright as a dollar, patient, an' a hard worker."
"Why he can't hold a job for more'n a week, an' I hear his family ain't got enough to live on."
"That may be, but what's that got to do with it? You see that meerschaum pipe o' his? Colored it himself. You see that there brass watch chain he wears? Braided it himself. Notice the peach stone charm hangin' to it? Carved it himself, an' it took two months to finish. See that him? Now he's got. Pete trained that dawg to do everything a circus dawg kin do. Ever hear Peter play on the mouth harp an' accompany himself on the guitar? Taught himself. Ever see his handwritin'? Just like cursive, all shaded an' flourished, an' he kin make a snake swim, take a job in the paper. Pete may not keep a pen or feed his family, but he's a genius—that is what he is."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

How She Knew

"I do think," exclaimed Mrs. Tolker indignantly, "that Mrs. Gadabout is the most aggressively invidious one I know, if I must say so. I ever knew why, I never pass her on the street, but what she invariably turns her head and stares back at me to see what I've got on and how it sits from behind."
"How—what is it? I was wondering my dear, how you found out that the mean little snake back when she told you?" inquired Mr. Tolker innocently.

"And Mrs. Tolker straightaway turned the stream of her indignation, setting her head on one side, and said, 'insinuating wretch of a woman, as she fondly termed him, and after the first frothy outburst refused to speak to the fortunate man the rest of the evening.'—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Hope is a flatterer, but the most upright of all parasites, for it feeds the poor man's hut as well as the palace of his superiors.—Shakespeare.

Beneficial Exercise

Exercises to be beneficial must do these things:
First—It must slightly increase the strength and force of the heart beat, so as to improve the circulation and with it any tendency to sluggishness.

Second—It must slightly quicken and direct the blood into the lungs and less impure air is left behind.
Third—It must stimulate the normal activity of the glands in the skin whose duty it is to rid the body of a part of the poisonous substances constantly being formed within us.
Practically any exercise, if carried out with the correct degree of moderation will accomplish these results and so deserves the term "beneficial exercise." The trouble is that indulging in past meditation almost every form of exercise can do more harm than good.—New York World.

The Original Cure For Corns

No substitute has ever been devised that gives quick painless relief. It is got from Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor. Its success is unequalled. It soothes, cures, heals and painlessly removes callous, bunions and corns in twenty-four hours. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed with the bottle Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor.

Red Flannel

Red flannel as a cure for rheumatism has many adherents. No doubt the flannel keeps warm and protects the stiff joints and sore muscles, but as far as the color goes any other in the spectrum would be fully as effective. Like many of our boy and girl superstitions the notion has become so deeply grounded as to have an undoubtedly favorable mental effect. Perhaps the iconoclast who would destroy it.—Boston Herald.

Tis a Marvellous Thing—When the cures effected by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil are considered, the speedy and permanent relief it has brought to the suffering wherever it has been used, it must be regarded as a marvellous thing that no potent medicine should result from the six ingredients which enter into its composition. A trial will convince the most skeptical of its healing virtues.

Living up to it

"We don't always do it as we should. For one thing we are told to love our enemies."
"A great many of us live up to that. Didn't you ever notice a couple of soldiers leading a dog, each other?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Minard's Liniment Cures Gargle It Cures

A Merciful Farmer
A young lady from the city was going to a cousin in the country. At the station she was met by the cousin and after a half hour's drive he told her they were approaching his farm.

Presence of Mind

Colonel Cody ("Buffalo Bill") once told the following story of one of his comrades of the plains known as Wild Bill. A man who nursed a grudge against Wild Bill swore to kill him. He stood concealed in a deserted street and confronted Bill as the latter passed and leveled a pistol at his head.

Energy and Work

What becomes of the energy of motion of a street car when suddenly stopped?
Law—mass multiplied by velocity equals momentum. The mass of the car in pounds or tons multiplied by its specific speed in feet per second gives the momentum in foot pounds or foot tons. This momentum is expended at the instant of collision or impact in delivering a blow, as in the case of a cannon ball. If the body receiving the impact is movable part of the momentum will appear in it as motion. If immovable the car will be smashed or move backward. And the molecules of matter at point of impact will be increased in temperature and also be moved somewhat. This requires energy, and work has been accomplished from instant of collision until rest. The stowage is the energy of momentum is transformed into work.—Edgar Lucien Larkin in New York American.

Business and Poetry

Not every one can successfully combine banking and literature, as did Lord Avelbury. William Sharp (Fiona MacLeod) attempted to when a clerk in the London office of the Bank of Melbourne, with the result that the manager quickly gave him choice of accepting an agency in an out-of-the-way place in Australia or quitting the service. Sharp took French leave for a year and returned as the manager's unpaid assistant. Next day the manager departed again, why he had been absent from his post. Sharp expressed his opinion that the bank was putting the calf of a cuckoo before his business, said the chief clerk, and leaving left the bank—London Chronicle.

It is by presence of mind in untold emergencies that the native fleetness of man is tested.—Lowell.

Assistance Necessary

The first field glasses taken to the New Hebrides sorely puzzled the simple minded natives. A traveler tells how one of the mission clergy was walking long the shore, when a native of his side pointed out a figure in the far distance. "There goes one of my enemies," said he. The white man, however, his aid to the natives and focusing them, handed them to his companion, who, gazing through them, in the distance, beheld his own apparently close at hand. Dropping the glasses, he seized his arrows and looked again. The enemy was as far away as air first. Once more he snatched the magic glasses, once more exchanged them for his arrows, and once more was baffled. A bright thought suddenly occurred to him. "You hold the glasses to my eyes," said he to the missionary, "and I can shoot him!"

Primitive Flithooks

What sort of hooks did our ancestors, our really remote ancestors, use when wild in wood the noble savage ran? I am inclined to agree with the American view that the earliest type of hook, if hook it can be called, was a straight bit of flint buried in the bait. When the fish had swallowed the bait, or whatever the hook was, the flint of the line pulled the flint across its throat, and as it moved, behind the fish, the flint pulled the fish without more ado. Perhaps some bright innovator of that misty past, instead of a bit of flint, which had a double curve like a pair of buffalo horns, used a flint effective, and perhaps out of that device came the nine double hook, which seems to be a very early form. And perhaps the single hook came into being because it was realized that one bent was as efficient as two for most purposes.—London Telegraph.

A Daring Escape

General de Negrier was one of the French officers who succeeded in escaping from German custody in 1870. He was in Metz and in hospital at the time of the capitulation, but instead of constituting himself a prisoner he put on his uniform, mounted his horse and rode out as an independent gentleman. Before long he was stopped by a sentinel who demanded his papers, he slowly spelling it out. Negrier shot him through the head and galloped off, crossing the Belgian frontier, and re-crossing it, after a rest to take part in the operations of Faidherbe's army of the north. It is not surprising that so resourceful a soldier got quick promotion and was successively the youngest colonel, the youngest general of brigade and the youngest general of division in the French army.—Westminster Gazette.

CONCENTRATION

It is better to advertise intensively than extensively when the sum to be devoted to advertising is small. This means the regular use of the BLAIRMORE
ENTERPRISE—52 messages a year addressed to the same constituency of readers.

Intermittent or divided effort is not likely to be fruitful. One full, covered blow is better than two half blows.

Concentration of appeal will do a work of conviction and persuasion that will surprise you when the year's returns are totaled up.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

There's advice for you in this little homily to advertisers; it is: Reward with a full—not divided—custom the merchant who steadfastly solicits your good-will.
The more you strengthen the hands of the man who serves you, the better will be the service returned.

For The Patriotic Fund

How much money will be raised monthly by five and ten per cent of the salaries of the civil service being contributed to the Patriotic Fund?

That is the question heard most frequently in official circles since Premier Sifton made the announcement of Alberta's Policy a few days ago.

The provincial auditor is busy preparing a statement for the Legislature and he is no doubt but that it will total a handsome amount.

Every person on the payroll of the province of Alberta will give; those receiving up to $1500 will contribute five per cent of their salaries monthly, and those earning over that amount will give ten per cent.

The authority of the legislature
will be asked to authorize collection of the subscription during the progress of the war, and the object of the fund will be not only to benefit dependents of Canadian volunteers and regulars, but also British navy
and army reservists, and French, Belgian and Russian reservists who leaving dependents in Canada, have come to join the colors.

Alberta leads the Dominion in the number of volunteers for service and Alberta's government was the first to offer a gift to the imperial government, a large portion of the half million bushels of wheat to be sent on the way to the front.

Alberta now leads the other provinces in special provision for the families of the men gone to the front, and Premier Sifton, in demonstrating that he made no little boast in saying that this Province would give its full dollar and its last man for the defence of the Empire should it be necessary.

Every Shoulder
To The Wheel

Now is the time for practical Cana-dianism. Everybody should help to give the trade and industry of the country
the strong underpinning of patriotism.
Let the harness teaching of commerce
that trade is a cold blooded and chocolated selfish business be now disproved. If sentiment were always absent from business the lot of the mass of the people would not be much better than it is now. Let us be with us about them. The sentiment of patriotism ought always to be active in the commerce of a country. Especially in times like this it ought to be a strong impulse to trade.

At present the natural industries of Canada are in an exceedingly fortunate and at the same time responsible position. All is well with them, and the welfare of the whole country greatly depends on them. The Canadians in whose hands these industries are are expected to do their duty in this crisis no less loyally than the Canadians who are enlisting for service in the Empire's defence abroad.
Our farmers have just taken off a good harvest. The grain that they have grown for Canadian foodstuffs, and the sea routes for the transportation of Canadian foodstuffs are guarded by British cruisers. Excellent prices are offered for all that our farmers have to sell. The prosperity which the situation brings to these will not, we are sure, be selfishly kept to themselves by our farmers. They will use their buying power this year as they have used it in former years. Let them now study more than ever before to give their fellow citizens engaged in the manufacturing industries the benefit of their preference.

Another natural industry that ought to go on flourishing in time of peace is that of producing the precious metals. The demand for gold was never before so urgent, and the scarcity of that basis of money causes increase in the demand for silver. Our fisheries ought also to be called upon for a greater yield than ever because of the high prices of all foodstuffs.

If the natural industries support the other industries as they ought to do there will be no great lack of work for wage-earners in the cities and towns. If every farmer who needs to make improvements or add to his equipment in the present year crop would now make out his orders and forward them to the factory for future delivery there would at once be a sharp revival of activity in many Canadian works employing labor.
If the operators of mines would similarly give notice of demands for plant and machinery other industries would at once feel the impulse. In many cases such orders would involve the making credit for a portion of the payment. The manufacture could lay his collection of such proposals before his bank, and we are sure that reasonable support could be expected from that quarter.

Public ownership can also be counted on to stand by the wage-earners. Governments, Federal, Provincial and Municipal, ought to feel bound to proceed with their several capital undertakings and keep on distributing money in the form of wages. Also government can-assist to overcome the effect of the Bi-tish moratorium to retard the getting of the proceeds of bonds sold recently in London. The receipt of these funds will be speedily followed by a fresh start in railway and other construction. Let all our people now have confidence in Canada and be thankful that their lot is cast
in this great country.

Bellevue Happenings

Will the Kaiser find the Japanese problem?

Dr. Moore left Sunday for a two weeks' holiday in Edmonton.

William Grafton, late manager of the Southern hotel, spent Sunday in Coleman.

Rev. Mr. Read, of Tennessee, spent several days with Rev. and Mrs. Cook this week.

A seven-pound trout takes some catching, but Jack Olfphant landed one on the North Fork.

The Kaiser is said to have returned to dine in Paris on August 12th, and he has not got the enteritis yet.

The mine was idle all day Wednesday, the first idle day for some time. A rumor was current last week that the W.C.C. Co. had lost part of their contracts, but this is officially denied.

Tom Lloyd and Tom Phillips left for Arrow Lake on Sunday. It is their intention to purchase fruit lands up there. They will stay with Walter Williams at Macleod's Landing for a few days.

AUCTION SALE—George W. Porter, of Grassy Lake, will sell at public auction at Bellevue, on Tuesday, September 22nd, at 2 p.m., the following: 1 carload of First-Class Milk Cows, One Bull, 300 Small Hogs, 200 Chickens.

Jack Olfphant and Charlie Perry returned to camp on Tuesday after a day's fishing on the North Fork. Fishing out there is better than ever, and has not been for the snow storm they would have stayed a week. As it was they brought home a full bag of big ones.

Our prophecy of a snow-storm given in last week's paper seems to have hit the mark. It was a heavy, white blanket, but we are thankful to see the white blanket removed and the good old mud with us again. We presume we must look for an Indian summer now.

C. W. Johnston and B. R. MacKenzie left for Pincher Creek on Sunday. From there they drove some fifteen miles north into the Porcupine Hills, where Mr. Johnston's "Russell" car was left minus a tire. The necessary repairs were made and the party visited Mr. Johnston's ranch, some fifteen miles from Grassy Lake. Two days were spent duck hunting, and the return trip of sixty-five miles was made in a little over five hours. Crops in the Meadow Creek, Beaver Creek and Grassy Lake districts are almost non-existent, but stock is in splendid shape.

The Town to be Born In

In the German town of Klingenberg, near Aachenburg, Bavaria, in addition to having no rates today for the upkeep of the town, those actually born in the parish received from the municipality a sum of about $9.00 year. This sum, if invested regularly at, say, 3 per cent., would entitle the owner to receive about $7,500 at the age of sixty—a very handsome old age pension. Were it not necessary that the inhabitants to prove that they were born in the parish before coming entitled to this payment the popularity of Klingenberg as a place of residence would doubtless be enormous.—We translate Gazette.

ALL WIRELESS OPERATORS MUST NOW HAVE A LICENSE FROM NAVAL DEPARTMENT

Regulations Have Been Issued Governing Operation of All Radio-Telegraph Equipment in the Dominion—Amateurs Have Caused Serious Interference

Conventions. Maritime regulations have been issued by the naval department governing the issuing of licenses and the control of operation of all radio-telegraph equipments in Canada, whether in the hands of amateurs or for commercial purposes, either on land or in Canadian registered vessels. The regulations are based on the uniform rules drawn up two years ago by the International Radio-telegraph convention. They apply not only to the "professional" wireless operator, but also to the hundreds of amateur operators throughout Canada, whose indiscriminate sending out of messages would, if uncontrolled lead to serious interference with the work of government or commercial stations.

must have a license from the postal service department and must comply with all the conditions of such license, on pain of a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or three months' imprisonment. For a limited coast-to-coast license the annual charge is $10; for a public commercial license, $50; for a private commercial license, $10; for an experimental license, $5, and $10 for an amateur license.

Provision is made in each license for the character of the wave-lengths to be used and the range allowed. All amateur operator licenses are issued on the condition that the holder shall not be operating to listen for the signal "Stop," which will indicate that they are interfering with commercial business. If that signal is heard the operator must stop until it is cancelled by a duly authorized government station.

allotted with the license, and no station must be worked by anyone not holding at least an amateur experimental certificate of proficiency secured from the naval service department.

For ocean-going vessels, it is provided that there must be an emergency source of power for operating instantly available, and hours are specified during which the operators must be constantly "on watch."

INTENSIVE FARMING PAYS SWISS

How they make American citizens in Nebraska and how intensive farming contributes to the growth of the state, is the case of Martin, a young Swiss, who made his appearance in Pawnee City fifteen years ago. He worked for two years as a farm hand, then the man was taken to the city, to the board, and at the end of that time he had a few hundred dollars with which he bought a piece of poor land at $100 to an acre. He had 100 acres, but he has stuck to that little patch these years and is well known as the "twenty-acre farmer."

The land is now worth $150 an acre, and he is now worth $15,000 where it would yield him $150 per acre per year.

He has an irrigation system, which, however, he seldom uses, but he rather welcomes a dry season, for that makes products higher, and he never has a crop failure. His crops come just a little earlier than those of any other farmer, and consequently he gets a higher price than his neighbors.

He discovered a few years ago that his farm was trying to get away from him through the washing of the soil to another man's farm, and he accordingly built a dyke, which saved the soil, and at the same time he got

A specialty with him is the taking of prizes on his products, and he bagged $1,450 in that way last year. In his immediate vicinity he is barred from competition: because no one else would have any chance against him, the county in which he lives pays him $75 a year not to enter. The department of agriculture is said to have offered him $2,500 a year to act as demonstrator on his own land, but he refused it.

DUMPED IN UNITED STATES

Goods Made in English Jails Are Shipped to America

Harry Hawes, of St. Louis, appeared before the senate committee on manufactures in support of a bill to prohibit the importation of convict and pauper-made goods. He said he represents the boot and shoe manufacturers of St. Louis.

Hawes told the committee that the convicts in the United States were producing $34,000,000 worth of goods a year, and that abroad it was estimated that convicts produced $500,000,000 worth.

The convicts in this country were paid on an average 50 to 75 cents a day, and in foreign countries from 5 to 25 cents a day.

In English prisons the men were not paid anything, and under the contract system the prisoners made goods were not allowed to sell prison-made goods in England. The goods are dumped in the United States, he declared, in competition with American labor.

Postage on Newspapers Increased

It is announced that in order to meet the cost of the increased subsidy to the carriers for the delivery of mails the post office department has decided to increase the postage on newspapers and periodicals. The present charge is one-quarter of a cent per pound. It is proposed in the future to charge one cent per copy for papers delivered by letter carriers. Where there is no letter carrier service the postage will be one-quarter of a cent per copy. A memorandum issued to the publishers under the authority of Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster-general, contains the details of the change.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint horizontal lines near the top edge and small dark spots or foxing scattered across the surface. The page is otherwise empty of text or illustrations.

A rather serious runaway occurred yesterday forenoon. A team drawing a load of coal, and in charge of C. Kosbach, took charge of its driver and reared in the direction of Victoria street. After crossing the street bridge near the liquor store they bolted towards the river bank, over which they made a mad plunge. When near the embankment the driver made a leap for his life, but was caught under one of the wheels of the heavy drag, which passed over one of his legs. He was picked up by some friends and rushed to the hospital where his wounds were immediately attended to by Dr. Mackay. On reaching the riverbed the horses broke clear from the up-turned drag and dashed madly through the northern part of the town.
